Part 1 Project Setup under Eclipse IDE

Assessment Items	Item Examined	Item Score	Score Earned by: DC025027 Ao Chi Lam
1. Select your Eclipse workspace at d:\cisc3003-2024\CISC3003-YourStudentID-2024, where YourStudentID is your student ID (in lower case letters and digits, say, dc251924).	Test-run from Eclipse IDE	1	1
2. Create your Eclipse project for this suggested exercise and name it "CISC3003-ProjAssgn-Part2-2024May06"	Test-run from Eclipse IDE	1	1
3. Create a folder under your project space and name it "uploaded_files" and another folder for "videos"	Test-run from Eclipse IDE	1	1
4. Move all the image files and video files for this project into the above " uploaded_files" folder	Test-run from Eclipse IDE	1	1
5. Create a folder under your project space and name it "css", another is named "js"	Test-run from Eclipse IDE	1	1
Score earned in Part 1		6	6

Assessment Items	Item Examined	Item Score	Score Earned by: DC02502 7 Ao Chi Lam
4. Produce the different sections in your Web pages and corresponding css files, including the various styling rules for your different sections in your Eclipse HTML editor and CSS editor respectively. And put the css files in the folder "css" under the project space.	HTML/CSS files visible from Eclipse editors, and Web browser	10	10
5. Render your Web pages in the Internal Web Browser of your Eclipse IDE, and also in an external browser (e.g., Chrome, Firefox, or Edge).	HTML visible from Eclipse editor, and Web browser	2	2
5. Add a footer section in the Web page produced in (4).	HTML visible from Eclipse editor, and Web browser	2	2
Score earned in Part 2		14	14

Assessment Items	Item Examined	Item Score	Score Earned by: DC02502 7 Ao Chi Lam
1. Create the "add_product.php", "checkout.php", "orders.php", and the php files "shopping_car.phpt", "view_order.php", and "view_products.php". Edit the php files and connect to corresponding "shop_dv" database.	Database visible from Xampp PhpMyAdmin Web Page with Web browser page visible	6	6
2. Start editing the six PHP pages by following the 1-page design format with the responsive design.	PHP visible from Eclipse editor, and Web browser	10	10
3. Creating the database in Xampp PhpMyAdmin, and connect it to the php. Edit the database and insert the needed testing data.	Database visible from Xampp PhpMyAdmin Web Page	5	5
4. Produce the needed sections in your Web pages and corresponding css files, including the various styling rules for your different sections in your Eclipse HTML editor and CSS editor	HTML/CSS files visible from Eclipse editors, and Web browser	12	12 respectively. And put the css files in the folder "css" under the project space.

5. Create the "Community Page.php", "Post.php" and "test.php" for the post function in the website. Edit the php files and connect to corresponding "webproject" database.	Database visible from Xampp PhpMyAdmin Web Page with Web browser page visible	9	9
6. Render your Web pages in the Internal Web Browser of your Eclipse IDE, and also in an external browser (e.g., Chrome, Firefox, or Edge).	HTML visible from Eclipse editor, and Web browser	2	2
Score earned in Part 3		44	44

Part 4 Test and Submission Steps

Assessment Items	Item Examined	Item Score	Score Earned by:
			DC025027 Ao Chi
			Lam

1. Firstly, test your pages with different sections by seeing if its presentation follows the 1-page format. Be sure to test the responsive design by resizing the windows, and observing the changes in screen appearance. Capture your screens to prove your media queries work.	HTML visible from Eclipse editor, and rendered in Web browser	12	12
3. Include the screen shots from (1) and (2) in a) the Eclipse project space (under a folder called "My Screen Shots"), and b) in the sharing forum CISC3003 Project Assignment Part 2 forum - Due on 2024MAY06 11:00 pm.	Screen shots captured and shared in the related forum	12	12
3. Zip the folder (note the ".zip" extension is not part of the name Do not use ".rar" format, but the ".zip" format)	Eclipse project space from your submission	1	1
4. Submit your zipped file at CISC3003 Submission Link for this project	Submission Link	1	1
Score earned in Part 4		26	26

Part 5 Contents and Look-and-Feel Design Score

Item under Evaluation	Assigned Score	Earned Score
Add Product Page	3	3
Check Out Page	3	3

Orders Page	3	3
Shopping Cart Page	3	3
View Order Page	3	3
View Products Page	3	3
Overall Style	3	3
Design of Navigation	3	3
Design of CSS files	3	3
Header and Footer in web pages	3	3
Images	3	3
Textual Information	3	3
Score earned in Part 5	36	36

Total Score – DC025027 and Ao Chi Lam

Item - Suggested Exercise 09	Allocated Score	Your Earned Score
Part 1 Assessment on Project Setup under Eclipse IDE	6	6
Part 2 Assessment on Project Work Steps - Frontend	14	14
Part 3 Assessment on Project Work Steps - Backend	44	44

Part 4 Assessment on Project Test and Submission Steps	26	26
Part 5 Assessment on Contents and Look-and-Feel Design	36	36
Total Score	126	126
100 Scale	100	100
Classification on Quality of Work			